

D1. Refrain for the Salazar Gloria (#26)

Canwn ni ogoniant i Dduw! (repeat)

D2. Response to the Psalm

Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord.

D3. Gospel Acclamation

If you make my word your home
you will indeed be my disciples, and you will learn the truth, says the Lord.

D4. First Vespers Antiphons

Ant 1: Let all the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.

Ant 2: Bring to the Lord your offerings, adore him in his holy place.

Ant 3: O God, accept my vows, grant me
the heritage of those who fear your name.

Mag.: He put his heart into his songs out of love for his Maker.

D5. Morning Prayer Antiphons

Ant 1: When, with heart and voice attuned, the psalms and hymns were sung,
the father prayed alone to God.

Ant 2: After the morning office,
the holy man was lifted up in heavenly converse.

Ant 3: The whole day long undaunted and untired, he taught and prayed, cared for the brethren, fed the hungry crowd.

Ben.: He was chosen to offer sacrifice, to preside over worship and to bless his people in the name of the Lord.

D6. Second Vespers Antiphons

Ant 1: Happy the man who cares for the poor and the weak.

Ant 2: All my life I will bless you,
in your name lift up my hands.

Ant 3: I proclaimed the justice of the Lord in the great assembly.

Mag.: The Lord loves a cheerful giver;
Saint David, light of the Church of Wales, pray for us to the Son of God.

D7. Lord, Who in Thy Perfect Wisdom

Lord, who in thy perfect wisdom
Times and seasons dost arrange,
Working out thy changeless purpose
In a world of ceaseless change;
Thou didst form our ancient nation,
In remote barbaric days,

To unfold in it a purpose
To thy glory and thy praise.

To our shores remote, benighted,
Barrier of the western waves,
Tidings in thy love thou sentest,
Tidings of the cross that saves.
Saints and heroes* strove and suffered
Here thy Holy Church to plant;
Glorious in the roll of heroes
Shines the name of Dewi Sant.

Lord, we hold in veneration
All the Saints this land has known,
Bishops, priests, confessors, martyrs
Standing now around thy throne:
David, Dyfrig, Deiniol, Teilo, -
All the gallant saintly band,
Who of old by prayer and labour
Hallowed all the fatherland.

Still thy ancient purpose standeth
Every change and chance above;
Still thy Holy Church remaineth,
Witness to thy changeless love.
Vision, grant us, Lord, and courage
To fulfil thy work begun;
In the Church, and in the nation,
Lord of Lords, thy will be done.

D8. O Great Saint David

O great St. David, still we hear thee call us Unto a life that knows no fear of death;
Yea, down the ages will thy words enthral us,
Strong, happy words; "Be joyful, keep the faith."

Chorus: On Cambria's land

stretch out thy hands in blessing:

*For all Welsh folk, thy help we now implore,

Lead us to God, with humble hearts confessing

Jesus, Lord and king for evermore.

Christ was the centre rock of all thy teaching,
God's holy will – the splendour of its theme.
His grace informed, his love inflamed thy preaching;
Christ's sway on earth, the substance of thy dream.

In early childhood, choosing Jesus only,
Thy fervour showed his yoke was light and sweet.
And thus for thee, life's journey was not lonely –
The path made plain by prints of wounded feet.

O glorious saint, we wander in the dark;
With thee we seek our trusted guide in Rome.
Help him to steer on earth Saint Peter's barque,
That we may safely reach our heavenly home.

D9. We Praise Thy Name

We praise thy name, all-holy Lord,
For him, the beacon-light
That shone beside our western sea
Through mists of ancient night;
Who sent to Ireland's fainting Church
New tidings of thy word
For David, prince of Cambrian saints,
We praise thee, holy Lord.

For all the saintly band whose prayers
Still gird our land about,
Of whom, lest men disdain their praise,
The voiceless stones cry out;
Our hills and vales on every hand
Their names and deeds record:
For these, thy ancient hero host,
We praise thee, holy Lord.

Grant us but half their burning zeal,
But half their iron faith,
But half their charity of heart,
And fortitude to death;
That we with them and all thy saints
May in thy truth accord,
And ever in thy holy Church
May praise thee, holy Lord.

Entrance Antiphon for Mass (Lk 4:18)

The Spirit of God is upon me; he has anointed me. He sent me to bring the good news to the poor and to heal the broken-hearted.

Collect (from DOPW/MPW)

O God, who by the virtue of wisdom, the gift of eloquence, and the example of prayer and pastoral zeal, raised the blessed David to be patron of Wales, grant that, by his intercession, your Church may ever prosper and render you joyful praise through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Prayer Over the Gifts (from MPW)

Lord accept the gifts we bring with joy, and may the light of your countenance assure us peace, through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Preface of St David

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
We do well always and everywhere to give you thanks.
Today we celebrate the feast of our Patron, Saint David,
who gave his life to Christ
for the sake of the kingdom of heaven.
His fervour in prayer filled him with joy,
his wisdom and eloquence strengthened your faithful people,
his ministry to those in need inspires us always.
Filled with his good zeal we join the angels and all the saints to praise your glory as with one voice we cry:

Communion Antiphon (Mt 19:27-29)

I solemnly tell you, those who have left everything and followed me will be repaid a hundredfold and will gain eternal life.

Prayer After Communion (from MPW)

May the communion we have received, O Lord, unite us in brotherly love and in zeal to proclaim your saving truth. This prayer we make through Christ, Our Lord.

(The Collect refers to St David's part in the Synod of Llandewi Brefi. The Prayer Over the Gifts alludes to the joy with which he is said to have celebrated the Holy Mysteries. The Post-Communion reminds us of his traditional admonition: 'Keep the faith'.)

Entrance Antiphon for Mass (Lk 4:18)

The Spirit of God is upon me; he has anointed me. He sent me to bring the good news to the poor and to heal the broken-hearted.

First Reading (Is 61:1-3. 10-11)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me,
for the Lord has anointed me.

He has sent me to bring good news to the poor,
to bind up hearts that are broken;
to proclaim liberty to captives,
freedom to those in prison;
to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord,
a day of vengeance from our God,
to comfort all those who mourn
and to give them for ashes a garland;

for mourning robe, the oil of gladness,
for despondency, praise.

I exult for joy in the Lord,
my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation,
he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity,
like a bridegroom wearing his wreath,
like a bride adorned in her jewels.

For as the earth makes fresh things grow,
as a garden makes seeds spring up,
so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations.

This is the word of the Lord.
